If you knew why it ended like this, feels like I'm falling down.

There's only pain being with you, feels like I'm falling down.

We're growing wider apart and this frustration.
Because my heart is broken, I'm frozen, I'm dead inside.

This ending new times alone, I was sitting here waiting.
I was waiting for you and my heart will be sundered this time.

When I speak your name I feel like I'm falling down.
And as you feel again I deny I ever knew you.

Your words won't cure my loneliness, feels like I'm falling down.
There's no gain being with you, feels like I'm falling down.

Now we have grown apart and this frustration.
Inside my heart is closing, I'm frozen, I'm dead inside.

This ending new times alone, I was sitting here waiting.
I was waiting for you and my heart will be sundered this time.

When I speak your name I feel like I'm falling down.
And as you feel again I deny I ever knew you.

Forever starts tomorrow but our ending is now.

When I speak your name I feel like I'm falling down.
And as you feel again I deny I ever knew you
I was sitting here waiting for you
It's like I'm falling down, falling down
It's a pain being with you
Feels like I am falling down
