[Murs] + (Delta)
What up.. What is up though
I'm in need of some hot noodeles.. but anyway, check it out
It's Murs ummm
(Making-Underground-Raw-Shit).. and.. and (Defining emanating lyrics) throughout Adelaide is what we're doing today
It's Murs and Delta motherfucker, yeah and you know what Mid-City, Adelaide and guess what.. shut up

[Delta]
Nah you don't have to shut up man
Maybe you just throw your hands up in the air
Like one, two
Hey Murs this girl told me you like to talk in your sleep

[Verse 1: Murs]
I write rhymes like this in my sleep
So peep my nocturnal emission, a hot journal description
A drop, earn your division
That's not, earned his position
I got, surgeons precision
So stop learning the rhythm
I can't whistle like Banks but do my frizzle to breaks until I'm rid of your hate
No fluff when I bust, it's like a brick to the face
Here to hit you so hard that you forget that I'm grace
So ya, play it again and say to your friends that on a scale of 1 to 5 that I was rated a 10
And that's two times better, but who rhymes better
I know it's the same line but really, who rhymes better
Feel your name in the blank and feel the pain in my shank
Push your game to the plank, and it's a shame that you sank
But you know who to thank
It's your fat-mouth fans you can blame for your fate

[Verse 2: Delta]

I write rhymes like this cos the battle is done

On some U2 rock-style rattling hum

Sunday, bloody Sunday, Sabbath's come

Back in Black was a dope beat for KRS-One

Make a grown man flinch like he hammered his thumb

Spit fire through wire 'til I callous my gum

Angers fun, mad numb

Not emo, use pens like Joe Pesci did in Casino

We know the truth, even flows loose as this with no market

still see no loop

Ego suits retard emcees

They're all biters, sound like Kanye East

You ghostwriters, just a man and a sheep

Giving out One Nation pamphlets at KFC

But racist cats ain't here for free

Forget VIP, I rhyme in a streak peace
