For too long...

[Chorus]

I walked this darkened path
It's time to change my mind
To embrace the light
And end this fucking suffering

In ice cold nights
I chase the fire in me
Always in search of meaning
I love hate and hate live
Fake eyes in false guides
Pretend to own me
Fake eyes and wrong minds
Follow me

[Chorus]

I walked this darkened path
It's time to change my mind
To embrace the light
And end this fucking suffering

For too long I walked beside them
Every step was feeding hell
I was loosing light
Loosing life

Beside this path there is a gate
What is the key to open
Moments of rest in sense
Feelings I have forgotten

To vanquish

Now I scream within - we have to take and choose
Now I fight within - fucked up in dust I lose

To set this fire - the flames within Destroy and built within - to hide to rest in shades
To be born again in blood - to be alive in endless flames

Destroy and built within - to be alive in endless flames

Vanquish

[Chorus]

I walked this darkened path

It's time to change my mind

To embrace the light

And end this fucking suffering

I walked this darkened path

It's time to change my mind

To embrace the darkness

And end this fucking suffering
