Now I know you're only heavy with your gold
Drag your feet so slowly like you hate to go Oh, the more I walk on eggshells, the more I step on nails
I got a million plans but each one fails

I'd rather you treat me like I treat you, I treat you
Me treat you the way you tend to do

'Cause I love the way you like me, I'd like you to love me so
I can see your heart is hunting for a place to go
The more I learn to hover, the less I learn to fly
The bigger I laugh, harder I cry

I'd rather you treat me like I treat you, I treat you
Me treat you the way you tend to do

Bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Oh, the bigger I laugh, yeah, harder I cry

Now I know you're lonely, your picture tells me so
You drag your feet so slowly like you hate, hate to go
The more I learn to live, the more I hate to die
The bigger I laugh, harder I cry

I'd rather you treat me like I treat you, I treat you
Me treat you the way you tend to do

Bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Oh, the bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Bigger I laugh, harder I cry

Bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Oh, the bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Bigger I laugh, harder I cry
Oh, the bigger I laugh
