"Prove Me Wrong"

I can't ignore the pain when I know what's going on it's hardship that you give you know it's worth nothing unless I'm really wrong It's not supposed to be this hard not a dead challenge too but I'll go on thinking it's perfect
No matter what the truth

Chorus:

Forget for all the times that you looked at me and told me I'm the one It's not worth living at all to me unless you prove me wrong

Well I can't escape the pain even after you are gone Yeah I thought that I knew everything but I realize I know nothing I sure wish that I was wrong
It wasn't supposed to be this hard
Not a dead challenge too
But I went on thinking it's perfect
No matter what the truth

Chorus 2x

you gotta prove me wrong unless you prove me wrong then I'm gone yeah
