Visit "Slavery" on MotoLyrics.com

I've given up everything 'til it seems so fucking wrong
I've always been tied to you, now the bond is fucking gone
You're just a victim of your own decisions
And your desperation is like watching an accident

I reject the way you need
To hurt yourself to get to me
I will break away from you
My regret is knowing you

You've thrown away everything and you hope I sympathize
It's kind of like slavery to a world of fucking lies
You're not the victim of your own addictions
And your desperation, now you won't get my sympathy

I reject the way you need
To hurt yourself to get to me
I will break away from you
My regret is knowing you

This feels like slavery
This ends it all

I reject the way you need
To hurt yourself to get to me
I will break away from you
My regret is knowing you

This feels like slavery
This ends it all
