Stillborn

I don't think you want to be the one to see inside
yourself
I don't think you want to understand that it clouds up your mind
I don't think you want to undermine
I don't think you want the bottom line
I don't think you want to see inside this God that you created
(This God that you created)

(No)

You don't even listen, you don't even hear me till I scream at you

(Now)

I see your intention a new intervention just to wear me down

(Breed)

Selected division you're on a collision course with your beliefs

(Find)

A new evolution you form a solution now you're born again

Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'
Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'

I don't think you'll ever be the one to take the blame
yourself
I don't think you even want to try to see through different eyes
I don't think you want to sacrifice
I don't think you want to fuckin' try
I don't think you want to step outside this lie that's been embedded
(This lie that's been embedded)

(Think)

It's all a delusion relieve your confusion when you put me down

(Fear)
Afraid to accept it you only defend it 'cause it's handed down
(Think)
It's all on the surface it's only convenient when you follow through
(No)
I'm not gonna give in you're already beaten when you're born again

Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'
Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'

Stillborn

It's time to make the cut and let you bleed for yourself on your own
Of all the things I need is just for you to stop from judging me

Sick
So get the fuck away from me
You make me sick
So stay the fuck away from me, away from me

Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'
Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'

Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'
Reborn like a motherfuckin'
Stillborn all devoid of feelin'
