Lets point the spotlight at the emmy award winning actress

And let her recite her stunning script

Lets set aside all her flaws

And we'll call her perfect

Besides she's the one that's running this

The bell rings that's the cue to stare at the mistress

Acknowledge her always being right

She's young and in love

She'll be seen in public

The crowd is the fuel to do it right

Can't you see, I'm gonna be

Protecting you from everything

You don't deserve this pain anymore

Lets point the spotlight at the victim you see where you're standing

Pay attention I see it's moving quick

There's drama there's action she's yelling perfection

Little brother that girl wont ever quit

She's trying hard to coordinate

All her words,

All her vows,

And all she says

She writing a script for you to read

It's a drama she calls life and you'll soon see...

Can't you see, I'm gonna be

Protecting you from everything

You don't deserve this pain anymore

"hey little brother that girl she's gotta, well you know..."

Little brother, little brother that girls gotta go

Can't you see, so easily

Protecting you from everything

You don't deserve this pain anymore
