I'm the father of your children
So well placed and so well hidden
I wrote it all down, wrote it all down
In little books that I was given
All filled up with information
Your whereabouts and affiliations
I know what you read, when you bleed
I substantiate their allegations

I kiss & tell
I kiss & tell them all the things they need to know
I kiss & tell them
There's nothing I conceal, my lips are hardly sealed

It's not my fault, I'm not to blame
I'm not that apt to feel ashamed
I say these words they're my solution
Absolute absolution
I'm the one who knows you best
There's a scar under your breast
I told them all, yes I did my part
I'm not guilty, I'm just caught
I'm not guilty, I'm just caught

And I kiss & tell
I kiss & tell them all the things they need to know
I kiss & tell them
There's nothing I conceal, my lips are hardly sealed

Lover, love her under cover
'Till someone pulled the wall out from under me

And I kiss & tell
I kiss & tell them all the things they need to know
I kiss & tell them
There's nothing I conceal, my lips are hardly sealed
Squeal, squeal, squeal
