It's 1:25 AM, I think I've seen that look somewhere before
1:25 AM, I thought that you were headed for the door Then something touched my skin, I won't ask you to leave anymore

Was it the talk or the drink or the dance that led to this Was I so naive, presuming the innocence
Well, it's 1:54 and it's such an unusual kiss

(chorus:)

Come on come on come on, over and over
Come on come on come on, we all wanted this
Come on come on come on, over and over
It's such an unusual kiss

The smell, the taste, the touch is so brand new
The thrill of the eyes that capture this forbidden view
It's 2:45 and you'll have some explaining to do

It's 3:17 AM, please let me into your eyes
It's 4:23, I try to hold on as you rise I'll give you all that I have if that's what you want me to try

(chorus)

It's 5:26 AM, I've got nothing left that I can say 5:26 AM, black and white has melted into grey
My baby draws the shades as the taxi pulls away

(chorus)
