The day long gone. The shadow is long.
Tree stood all. The eye sand ears.

The sand the barrier. A cage full of birds.
The waves may roll. Spring and autumn.
Peoples to share. Gods in abundance.

The sand the barrier. A cage full of birds.
Flee and escape. Flee and escape.
Change your ways cry out to Me.
My words a fire doubting their will.

A sense of guilt but any will do.

The sand the barrier. A cage full of birds.
Flee and escape. Flee and escape.
Change your ways cry out to me what love is.
But now what toant sin my head.

Your comfort's so far Your dream unreal.
The questions in my mind can I leave them all to You.
Do You control my heart. Heart.
Change your ways cry out to Me.
I'll carry on. You'll carry me.
