How are you. What are you up to these days. Are you still in love.
Or does it all just pass away. What are you now.
Where is that light in your eyes
That once burned strongly and filled the sky with joy I still care for you.
I'm still the same still the same I saved your life and I still want you.
It shall remain shall remain. To be mine.

Where were you when I called your name.
Search your heart Is it still the same I still care for you.
I'm still the same still the same.
I saved your life and I still want you.
It shall remain shall remain. To be mine.

Here comes the mess to spill on all that once was dead.
The minutes slip away my comfort remains lost.
Will all the bliss come alive on my tv screen.
Or is it just a slashing mind playing game.
Please hold on I am here for you.
I know your fears cause I hold your heart.
Don't be afraid. Now there 's only love to fulfill.

And I'll be waiting. And I'll be waiting.
Yes I'll be waiting. Yes I'll be waiting.
God please take me home to that place for which I long.
Jesus fill my heart tonight 'cause I know You are my light.
I'll be waiting. Yes I'll be waiting.
Yes I'll be waiting. Yes I'll be waiting.
