For centuries we have lived dead
In the shadows a secretive race
But through modern metal music
We can truly show our face
Excepting all that I've told you
You're hangin on my words to the end
Old world legends have risen
And we are here for life my friends

Here for life
Here for life
Here for life

Do you believe in immortals
Come and let me show you the way
Others conspire against me
To end what I might say
I divulge to all of my secrets
Behold I am living dead
Vampire accepted among you
I'm here for life my friends

Here for life
Here for life
Here for life

Come to the show, feel your blood flow
Thrash sweat and rave, I feed on stage!

For centuries we have lived dead
In the shadows a secretive race
But through modern metal music
We can truly show our face
Excepting all that I've told you
You're hangin on my words to the end
Old world legends have risen
And we are here for life my friends

Here for life
Here for life
Here for life

Here for life
Here for life
Here for life
