"Why Do You Cry"

Visit "Why Do You Cry" on MotoLyrics.com

I see you lonely with tears in your eyes
There's no one beside you to make it alright
I have been there
I've seen it all
Those who don't care
They just watch as you fall

But you cannot waste all your life in the gutter
I know if you tried, it'll only get better
Wherever you go in life
You should know
There's always a way out
A glimmer of hope
Yoki: SO MUCH TO LIVE FOR

CHORUS

(So) Why do you cry
It'll be alright
Dry your tears
There's nothing to fear
