Hey jane, where you're going today?
You took a call and you ran all day
That clock going 110, I never said I'll get you back again
So you ain't got time to make no mistakes
Ain't got time to waste my prays

Hey jane, where you're going today?
You lit a fire then you find the game
They say you got a troubled soul
I say you got it on the road
So you ain't got time to change your ways
Ain't got time to make no mistakes, with you
So much you can do

Hey jane, where you're going today?
Got a love for you anyway
I guess I'm tired of hanging round
I'll meet you there when you coming down
And when you taste
Right into my face

Hey jane, where you're going today?
You broke my heart then you ran away
Some say you got a rotten soul
But I say janey loves rock and roll
So you ain't got time to Ain't got time to mess my head, and you
Show them what you can do

Hey jane where you're going today?
You living fast lane life right away
Got no place for your rotten life
A heart like yours never satisfied
Said you ain't got time to search for Running so fast you get no place
I'll get a car for you right away
Ain't got time to make no mistakes
Ain't got time to waste, with you

Hey jane, where you're gonna go
Hey jane, where you're gonna go

Hey jane, where you're gonna go
Hey jane, where you're gonna go
