If you got the money for me how come
You ain't got a problem you can't afford
I was very nearly clean you know
'Cause I only had twelve steps to go

The only time I'm drink and drug free
Is when I'm going to have to pay for what I need
That's where we'll be?

If your willpower's weak temptation's strong
Lord knows how we're going to get along
The worst thing about your kind of disease
Is you know who can charge what you please
It's twenty-eight days for thirteen grand
Better go get myself an insurance plan
She's my man

I ain't got to where I'm going to
By hanging 'round with people like you
But then again I ain't never got
Anywhere I wanted to get to

I ain't got to where I'm going to
By hanging 'round with people ain't my friends
But then again I ain't never got
Anywhere I wanted in the end

If you got the money for me how come
You ain't got a problem you can't afford
I was very nearly clean you know
'Cause I only had twelve steps to go

The only time I'm drink and drug free
Is when I get my drugs and drink for free
That's the mean

If your willpower's weak temptation's strong
Lord knows how we're going to get along
And I don't believe in Jesus Christ
I'd rather spend my cash on vice
Twenty-eight days for thirteen grand
Better go get myself an insurance plan

She's my man

Peace a million things one way
Group therapy gets me depressed
Your money get banned if you relapse
To take you back when you got to catch
[Incomprehensible]
Come on, come on

[Incomprehensible]
