You said you would call me or write me a letter.
But now I know that forever is not that far from here.
You said you were on my side from the start.
It's funny how things they work out
and our square's not far as wide.
If I gave everything to you.
Would you say what you do?
Would you talk like you knew
everything we've been through?

Fall down, so I can't lift myself off the ground.
Fall down, so I can't lift myself off the ground.

If I gave everything to you.
Would you say what you do?
Would you talk like you knew
everything we've been through?

If I gave...
