If these words do not reach you
Back playing games like we used to
This is the last time I lose it
I'll just force somebody else

(How do you love somebody more?)
How do you love somebody more?
How do you love somebody, love somebody
How do you love somebody more?

I feel useless, I feel tired
I feel aged and uninspired
This is a curtain call for us all
Then you call my name
At the changing of the guard
This is a curtain call for us all

Sign up, on all these feelings
Don't stare up at all ceilings
Move right past this and say
"We knew ourselves all too well"

(How do you love somebody more?)
How do you love somebody more?
How do you love somebody, love somebody

How do you love somebody more?

I feel useless, I feel tired
I feel aged and uninspired
This is a curtain call for us all
Then you call my name
At the changing of the guard
This is a curtain call for us all

I understand what it is
We can't be friends
Turning back the clock won't work
We'll never make it
I understand what it is
We can't be friends

Or turn back the clock

Don't listen to them

Don't listen to them

When we're all on trial (don't listen to them)

And we're all on trial (don't listen, don't listen)

Don't listen to them

Don't listen to them

When we're all on trial

And we're all on trial

How do you love somebody more?

How do you love somebody, love somebody

How do you love somebody more?
