I've left this all for you to see and what's left is me I'll take my time giving back your things and I wonder, wonder how can I get through this

And I miss you, miss you more and more with every miss

and I wonder, wonder
how can I get through this
more and more with every miss

And I know you know
And I know you know

I've left this song for you to hear now It's my biggest fear
And I know you know
and I hope you got what you wanted
out of me
and I hope you got what you wanted

out of me
and I'll take my time giving back you things [x2]

and I'll take my time giving back your things and I'll take my time giving back your things
