Hold my breath, now you couldn't be more perfect.
You are exactly what I'm wishing for
and it's not what I say
and it's not what I do.
I think we're on our way now.
I want to see us through.
Like she said tonight this must be a lie
under star lit skies
and i see now that this will work out alright.
I'll simply be here tonight just with you.
My best dreaming it couldn't see me through this,
but now I wake up and I know you're there. T hrough your smile bright, we'll talk all night.
