I've been thinking how to tell you off
Why do you forget everything i say?
(How can I) always find the time to spend with you While you focus everything on me?

(This Time)This time
dont close your eyes
And take your time
Its your time
been thinking of this for too long
Who knows what to say now?
If this is getting over him from now on Honestly, your not Honestly your...

You call and ask for me the time (its almost two)
You think you'd just look at your watch (Why can't you) forget everything you thought you knew? (you thought you knew)
And stop pretending its the truth

(This Time)This time
dont close your eyes
And take your time
Its your time
been thinking of this for too long
Who knows what to say now?
If this is getting over him from now on Well honestly, your not Honestly, yeah

focus, focus, focus,

This time
dont close your eyes
And take your time
Its your time
Hey hey,
You know what to say now this is getting over him from now on

You cant stop it now no,

You cant stop me (you can't)
Stop me (you wont)
Stop it now
