Hook:

Who's that nigga in the fresh V-12?

Westside rolling with fat jewels

(You know it's K-Dee)

Fa-Sho

(And ain't nobody bad like me)

Fa-Sho

Verse 1:

I'm in the ghetto hall of fame

Man it ain't no thang

So why you playin' games, trick you know my name

Oh, am I talking loud?

What you talking bout?

And what you doing out, on my paper route (bitch)

You wanna know if we can still kick it

But can you help a young nigga get a meal ticket

Shit I can do better by myself

What's happenin'? Every motherfucker I know is platnum (Westsiiiiide!)

And ain't nobody gonna sw-i-itch

And go broke for a b-i-itch

The westside is r-i-ich

So everybody get the d-i-ick (ha ha ha)

I sport Sonar on my wrist, the sun on my fist

Never share it, hoe you won't inherit no karrots

Westside medallions, we got thousands

And a house full of stallions sayin'...

Hook

Verse 2:

The six hun, be makin' run like stockings

Garenteein' 24 K with enough ice to go skiing

Shine y'all (bling) fat rocks that'll blind y'all

Nothing comes free, how many times must I remind y'all

Tricks taking me shopping (what?)

Shoes size 10 (what?)

Break a nigga off some ends, bald dubs for them Benz
(what?)

A panda and a parrot want the lobster with the shrimp
They way the jockin', keep my pockets swollen like a blimp
Smokin' hemp, mashin' low key with the windows tinted
Breakin' they neck to see who in it
The game is implamented to the fullest
So nice, see me roll like dice
Whey they spot me on the g-o
Makes them all want to know...

Hook

Verse 3:

Baby please, got more cheese than Kraft
Singin' autograph, leather coat like Shaft
Arrivin' at the club, hit a false sub
Me, Ice Cube, Mack 10 and that nigga Dove (Westsiide)
Parlyin' like stars, Hennesy at the bar
No need to announce cause hoes know who we are
Then I see her freakin', peakin' from afar
How bizarre she remind me of something like R.(what)
Kelly, damn, ass shakin' like jelly
Ready to be spread, open wide and dick fed
All on my niggys it wasn't hard to detect it
Know she love criminals and wanted to get connected
Say no mo, and made our way to the door
Tip the valay, pull up Mercedes,
Hopped in, it's goin' down
Baby hold on, I can hear them in the line start to say as we rode on

Hook

Outro:

Ice Cube:

When you see K-Dee, throw up the dub (X4)
Incredible Dub S-C-G

K-Dee:

Irresistable bitch, let's roll, get rich
Baby please, you ain't shit without these (X2)
