Crashing The Sky

Sailed around every town Just when I felt like flying and it's like real life
somewhere I hear you crying

Old televisions broken radios play All night frightening like magic
and it's like real life
somewhere I hear you crying

Crashing the sky
down on your head
Maybe you'll get it
Maybe you'll just crash in the sky

When you're walking on clouds with the stars in your hair Tell me why you feel like breaking down again

Swarmed by a million glowing fireflies somehow I couldn't catch one
and it's like real life
somewhere I hear you crying

down on your head
Maybe you'll get it
Maybe you'll just crash in the sky

Maybe you'll get it
you don't have to crash in the sky
