Memories, of your love
Is tearing me apart, babe
'Cause I know, love has been
Treating you so wrong
Why do you, turn away?
I wish you would just stay, babe
Girl I know, I have been Waiting here for long

Won't you hold my hand tonight?
And help me make this feel alright
Won't you start again twice?
I need you in my life tonight

What kind of man, could he be
To take away from me, babe
He never knew who you are Never knew the girl within
I don't know, what to see
But it's breaking me inside, babe
'Cause my heart
Broken down

And shattered just like glass

Won't you hold my hand tonight?
And help me make this feel alright
Won't you start again twice?
I need you in my life tonight

When there is nothing left to change
And I think I go your way
But I don't know where to begin again
And there is nowhere else to go
'Cause you lost your faith and hope
But I hope to help you carry on
