William Clark Green
"Can't Let Go"

The waters rising I need a breath
I feel my lungs losing grip
It wont be to long

The things I've done I can't explain
I give in to ease my pain
Mary take me home

You think I'm crazy, I think I'm sane
The doctors tell me man it's a shame
I just can't let go

I'm sorry mother for the things I've done
I should have been a better son
I never meant no harm

Brother sister father too
I'm wrapped in chains I can't break lose
Hell I'm too far gone

You think I'm crazy I think I'm sane
The doctors tell me man it's a shame
I just can't let go

You think I'm crazy I think I'm sane
The doctors tell me man it's a shame
I just can't let go
