Woke up this mornin'
Fell outa bed
Took some time to feed my head
I took a walk through Central Park
The world looked fine
Stopped for awhile in Strawberry Fields
You know the place where nothing is real
I saw John Lennon
Dancin' through a cloud
Singin' "All you need is love"
Same as zen same as now
The world looked fine

Wasn't meetin' no man
Nor no lady
Nobody around drivin' me crazy
The world looked fine
The world looks mine
And yours
And his
And hers

Went cross town to Washington Square
I saw Bob Dylan there
Dancin' with a rainy day woman
Nobody was feelin' all so alone
The world looked fine

Wasn't meetin' no man
Nor no lady
Everything was clear
Nothin' hazy
The world looked fine
The world looked mine
And yours
And his
And hers

The world looks fine
