paint a perfect picture I can make it with you growing all the time but the image still remains moments when you move me hiding in my memory Living with the love like we could rull the world But time flys can they just leave everybodys clock is ticking cuz we know life is beautiful do you see what I see something magical if you want it you can take it just grab all and brace it you already know life can be picture perfect life can be picture perfect

life would be picture perfect

Baby I remember discovering a treasure hopin in your chest and recover in your soul now nothing more is hiding when no longer deciden its a tragic world but there's always room for hope and time flys can they just leave

Follow the signs no fallin behind remeber the time the conshest felt you do you believe the beauty you see and everything imagination and taking control of body and soul the life that you know iluminating
