our love is like a blooming rose so small but yet it grows so i wrote this to let you know how much we've really grown and i know it's hard to believe how a girl like you can love me i'm a man with many flaws girl tell me what you saw in a guy like me but now i see that you make me complete and i'm just so proud that i actually found a girl that'll stick around thru the bad and the good and the understood how much she means to me and i agree your eyes like the ocean sea shining like a bright star in the dark your love has went so far so i give you my heart

you hold my special part so please keep it with you and keep our love true
and all the things we've been thru you know that i love you fresh man year we met eachother our love was like no other the first day that we kissed i felt a sudden twist a burst of emotion's coming out so scared to take this round but you were there for me same day i start falling my heart skips a beat when i think of you because it's jump like kangaroo i get butterflies when i hear your voice i don't know but i just don't have a choice
