You wanna feel you're never walking
You see your feet from off the ground
And when you leave there's no one talking
You slowly breathe and look around

Well I know you're the loneliest person I know
Just a flag in the wind that won't blow
Just a tear rolling down the window

You cut your lip and now you're freaking
Another friend becomes a foe
You try to leave but they offer candy
Another time you won't say no

Well I know you're the loneliest person I know
Just a flag in the wind that won't blow
Just a tear rolling down the window

You see that I know you're the loneliest person I know
Just a blade in the grass that won't grow
Just a hand holding on to let go

Time is a train, time is a train
Leading you nowhere, leading you nowhere
Time is a train, I feel the same
Leading you nowhere, leading you nowhere, yeah

A second page you reach a chapter
You're on the phone but no one's there
Another thing you can't keep after Another time you're left alone

Well I know you're the loneliest person I know
Just a flag in the wind that won't blow
Just a tear rolling down the window

You see that I know you're the loneliest person I know
Just a blade in the grass that won't grow
Just a hand holding on to let go

You see that I know you're the loneliest person I know
Just a fly living in the back row

Just a slap in the face that won't show yeah

And I can do nothing about it

I can do nothing about it

I can do nothing about it

I can do nothing about it
