"Edge Of Forever"

Time flies around at the speed of light Doing its work both day and night Every moment is a part of it all Even when it's gone it's possible to recall

How do I know that time is for real It cannot be seen, it's impossible to feel There's no way to stop it, it will always go on Forever and ever, even when I'm gone Sitting on the edge of forever
time is a mystery
Sitting on the edge of forever
the future is history
Tomorrow is today
Today is yesterday
Sitting on the edge of forever
time is a mystery
Sitting on the edge of forever
the future is history
