The human race is dead
there's not a single head Wherever I see there's no one but me

The last nuclear war a horror never seen before Nobody could understand why everybody had to die

But the planet is still alive nature did survive
A world by my own but still all alone
I'm the last man on earth
Radiation got me as well made me immortal in this hell An old dream coming true but why now when there is nothing to do

Since then I've been searching around going from town to town Could it only have happened to me Am I doomed to be...
I'm the last man on earth
The robots are now in control better be aware of their patrol I have everything to fear if they find me out here
I'm the last man on earth
