I look around and realise
this isn't my world
The sky is green, the clouds are purple
and nothing can be heard
A second ago I was in my bed
and now this is inside my head
Is it for real or is it a dream or maybe something in between?
Life is strange in the other dimension
My mind is the energy
Life is strange in the other dimension.
I'm trapped in a mystery
Life is strange in the other dimension.
Is this my memory?
Life is strange in the other dimension.
And how do I get free?
Far away by the horizon
I see a little town
A minute later I'm walking the streets and there are aliens all around
I open the door without any floor and the girl she takes my hand
She gives me the glass which is full of grass and says "Do you understand?"
Life is strange in the other dimension
My mind is the energy
Life is strange in the other dimension.
I'm trapped in a mystery
Life is strange in the other dimension.
Is this my memory?
Life is strange in the other dimension.
And how do I get free?
I turn around and enter my spaceship,
heading for the second moon
It takes almost a year to watch the screen,
but I hope I'll be there soon
My plastic arm it shouts at me
"You'll crash if you don't stop!"
I open my eyes and watch the alarm which says "Time to wake up"
Life is strange in the other dimension
My mind is the energy

Life is strange in the other dimension.
I'm trapped in a mystery
Life is strange in the other dimension.
Is this my memory?
Life is strange in the other dimension.
And how do I get free?
