"Marionette"

You, it's sad but it's true
You don't have a clue
Where you are heading to
You, still want to be
Independent, free
King of your own world

No you can't control
The chains are too strong
You're a marionette
There's no way to be
Free if you cannot see
That all these strings
Are just pulling you down
Way down

I'm watching your dance
A dead end romance
That faded away
I'd like to help you
Release you from the chains
Of individual freedom
