After we've gone
After the moon rises
And the red flags fly

Gonna reach for the sky
Gonna hold my head up high
Gonna reach for the sky

Storm ragin'
That'll be alright
If we reach for the sky
Yeah we reach for the sky

Guess there never was
A winner
Just a race against time

I was mean, I was kind
Even though I was blind
I still reach for the sky

Storm ragin'
That'll be alright
If we reach for the sky
Yeah, we reach for the sky

Come on people
Reach for the sky
