I can't be here today
No
Found the strength to walk away
Yes

And it's in your eyes
They say more than you want to say
I hold my head up high
As I run and run away

But it's alright,
Now I see that things aren't meant to be
Yes it's alright
Now I see that things aren't meant to be

And so you will remain
Right here
In my heart, in my mind, my tears
Even though I try, I can't stop thinking of you
It's all I can do
To stop living my life through you

But it's alright,
Now I see that things aren't meant to be
Yes it's alright,
Now I see that things aren't meant to be

But it's alright
Now I see that things aren't meant to be
Yes it's alright
Now I see that things aren't meant to be, be Meant to be
