[Japan release]

The invitations said that this was Something new
A preacher will ask for more than
Two "I do's"
In our wedding dance we will
Take the chance
That people accept our new
Point of view
With each one in hand the
Wedding party stands
1,000 foot trains between the two
Of you
The flower girls launching from
Their hands one million rose petals
That start up the band
An Imaginary Marriage there is Always room for you
In this Imaginary Marriage there
Is always
Room for two
The brides and groom
They dance across the room a bouquet
Is tossed they leave to honeymoon
The traditionalist spit they choke
And have a fit what they really want
Is to be in our shoes
