We, we can do anything
Why do they beat us down with their lies?
They object us, they reject us
Time after time then we ask ourselves

Why are we alive?
Why are we alive?
Why are we?

I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug
I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their
They make silence their drug

We, we are everything
Why do they beat us down to their size?
The better we fit the bigger they get
And we justify their lousy existence

Why are we alive?
Why are we alive?
Why are we?

I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug
I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug

I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug
I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug

The better we fit the bigger they get
And we justify their lousy existence

Why are we alive?
Why are we alive?
Why are we?

I, I can't hear anything

They make silence their drug
I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug

I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their drug
I, I can't hear anything
They make silence their
They make silence their drug
