Sponge Bob Square Pants: (Says) Well, it was fun while it lasted.

I guess that I was not meant to fly after all.

(Sighs) Huh! Hey! My jelly fish friends are helping me fly!

Without pants! I guess that goes to show...

(Sings) You don't need a plane to fly. Plastic wings may make you cry.

Kites are made for windy days. Chairs with balloons, fly away!

Inflatable pants, you may as well skip!

If you want to fly, all you need is...

(Says) friendship. Yeah. Good bye Jellies!

You taught me a valuable lesson. Although, I'm not quite sure what it is.
