Spongebob: I'm flying, I'm flying!

Town: He's flying, he's flying! He's really, really, flying!

Spongebob: They laughed, they scoffed, before I had liftoff.

Town: But now he's flying, he's flying high in the sky.

Spongebob: I'd love to hang around to say "I told you so",

But it's off to Jellyfish Fields I goooooo.

Roads and streets are not for me.

Mrs. Puff: Help! Please help!

My snail is stuck up a tree!

I've had her since I was a little girl,

But now it looks like the end of her world.

(Spongebob frees snail)

Spongebob: I have never felt so free.

High in the sky is the place for me.

Helping friends from up above.

These are the things that I loooooove.

I'll help Mr. Krabs reclaim his dime,

And I'll save Patrick from this mime.

Even Plankton needs some help,

When he gets tangled in the keeeeelllp
