

Wishes And Thieves "Lighthouse"

So disappointing
The wishes and thieves
And now the drowning
Sands disappear
To be so needy
There is no lighthouse here

So disappointing
The current recedes
The heart stops beating
All hopes is asleep
No hidden treasure
There is no lighthouse here

Hold my breath X 2

As I dive deep
The water swallows me whole
Wash my slate clean...
Don't breathe X 2

The only place that I find peace is when I sink down
below

And though it's dark, I feel so safe
Cause it's a space you can't go

The only place I have relief
Is underwater my love
My love

So disappointing
The wishes and thieves
And now the drowning
Sands disappear
To be so needy
There is no lighthouse here
