Guilty by all means
how to survive
this day means so much I've payed my debts to you sleep in fusion file awaken by guilt again

bear mr innocence
wake my innocence

it's just a spectre an interlude of confusion don't let it scare you so be it thoughts of amusement the light counters dark as it reaches its peak blend and balance the bold takes it all the threshold's been diminished your ideals are gone the struggle almost over you've found your pot of gold learning to pray upon these false indications clinging to this nothingness might do you good solve this riddle the answer lies within tantoblin knows where the hierogram is
