"Stop"

To be honest - you're perfect Us two, it's nothing but all good You say we're right for each other So why can't you make up your mind?

Please no "don't know"s, please there's no "maybe"s
I don't want these loose ends no more, uh-oh I'm sick of explanations, special reasons, excuses and lies

So just stop, stop, stop pretending; make up your mind So just stop, stop - or I'm suspending; make up your mind
I don't want anything to do, to do with you if you can't promise me
So just stop, stop, stop pretending; I'm telling you to stop

I know I'm not stupid, that you need your only privacy
You should know by now that I've got a life on my own I know you like things, just like they are, but I can't do this no more So sick of explanations, special reasons, excuses and
lies

So just stop, stop, stop pretending; make up your mind
mind
I don't want anything to do, to do with you if you can't
promise me
So just stop, stop, stop pretending; I'm telling you to stop

Ooh yeah
Why don't ya, don't ya, don't ya stop?
Why don't ya, don't ya, don't ya stop?
Why don't ya, don't ya, don't ya stop, stop, stop?

You say that you're afraid of commitment, yeah
You mean our history is never ending date, too late Stop! (stop, stop, stop pretending; make up your mind)

So just stop, stop, stop - or I'm suspending; make up your mind
I don't want anything to do, to do (with you if you can't promise me)
Yeah, yeah! (So just stop, stop, stop pretending); Oh, I'm telling you to stop

Stop, stop, stop
Stop, stop, stop
