[Chorus: Desdamona]

I don't want, no relationship
To trip on my, faulty fuses
I just want, to be who I am
Without fear, for the force of your hand

[Desdamona]

I don't want, none of this, touch me, I might get pissed
Turn around, now shut the door, I got my gun so hit the floor
You're not welcome any more, no you're not welcome
Tempted I was so ignorant, walked in insignificant
Signed my name on dotted line, now sittin here, doin time
This life got me trapped again, when will I learn so I can win
Stole your breath your stole my heart now in my mind
we're not apart
You killed my soul, you had to die, behind these bars I sit and cry

[Chorus]

[Desdamona]

Yo bitch is what led to this, but most of all I miss your kiss
Wish you would come back to me, but this is how it has to be
You put your hands around my neck and when I spoke you threatened death
I became so terrified, when I looked into your eyes
This is what your hate creates, I became your last mistake
Once you saw it was too late you beat me down to seal your fate
Now here I am to pay the price, used to be your lovely wife
So your life has been erased but in my mind I see yo'
