

Destined For Nothing

"This Night"

Tonight is the darkest night of all,
One last chance to say goodbye,
To the people that you've come to love,
But it hurts too much.

So say goodbye to life as you know,
And try hard not to show,
How much that this is tearing you apart,
Just know we'll miss you when you're gone.

Is this how it was supposed to be?
Left with feelings and regrets,
And with nothing more than hopelessness,
And wishing to stay.

The rain falls hard onto the ground,
I've said my goodbyes,
I've said my goodbyes.
