When she's got to say goodbye
After staying out late on a weeknight
And I walk on the side of the road
It can be such a shame
Under industrial lights

How short the night and day
All that I've been for so long
Is trying to get right here
And sometimes I can't make myself shuck and jive
And I do the same you know
Perfection's on her tongue rolls out in monotone
I do the same you know
That's where the heartache goes
Here's the final row
I do the same you know
It's just you can't see it
When she's got to say good-bye
Chips and dip
Staying out late on a week night

I do the same you know sometimes I can't make myself shuck and jive
Cause where the heartache goes
I do the same you know
