The beast and dragon, adored
You been gone so long
Oh, where you been for so long
I went to places unknown

Rented a room and I forgot my pen
Shook my twin and I had to find the feelin' again

Now all I need is a crew
One that can act as if
One that can slay on cue
And sneeze and sniff, uh-huh alright
I'm going back to the water
Been landlocked too long

I got a feelin', it don't come cheap
I got a feelin' oh and then it got to me
It took its time a-working into my soul
I got to believe it come from rock and roll
Believe it come from rock and roll

Where did you get for so long
I been learning my scene
I been watching my friends move away
I summon my love back to me

And I went down by the seawall
That's when I knew, knew they never got you

Great dominions, they don't come cheap
Great dominions all they just want you to leave
I got the meaning, the meaning sat tight
Said, "It's not what you expected but it could be right"

I got a feelin', it didn't come for free
I got a feelin' now then it got to me
When you don't feel it shows they tear out your soul
And when you believe they call it rock and roll
And when you believe they call it rock and roll

The beast and dragon, adored
You been gone so long

Oh, where you been for so long
I went to places unknown

The beast and dragon, adored
You been gone so long
Oh, where you been for so long
I went to places unknown

The beast and dragon, adored
You been gone so long
Oh, where you been for so long
I went to places unknown
