It's easier to drink on an empty stomach
Than eat on a broken heart
The figures of art and that kind of thing
Only will bring you apart

I'll give it just one more chance
I need to go get some leg
Get some shine on my shoes

I need a new pair of pants
And take part in it too
Like figures of art, yeah

It's easier to eat on a broken stomach
Than drink on an empty heart
The figures of art, at quarter to three
Where you want to be is hard
