I'll never hold you back and I won't force my will
I will no longer do the devil's wishes
Something I read on a dollar bill
A paper tiger can't tell you where he stands
We'll go back tonight the way that we came
I'm not dumb, just wanna hold your hand

So alright
Where we want to be
And alright
What that we could be

So alright
Where we want to be
So alright
What that we could be

Oh, we could go kick out some doors together
Stay out till morning sharp as knives
The new war will get you, it will not protect you
But I will be there with you when you turn out the light
Said, I will be there with you when you turn out the light
And I will be there with you when you turn out the light
