Come loosen up, so hung up
Come count them ways to [Incomprehensible]
Remember, winter
Gets cold in ways you always forget

Oh, you know the rhythm and soul
Get your hands out your back pockets, boy, let it go
Here comes the man, you saw in Kazan
He's just [Incomprehensible], oh, no, rhythm and soul

Dollars and cents and no accident
Not in the name of democracy
Come get there, come be there
Come let your socks fall down to your shoes

And you know the rhythm and soul
Get your ankles moving their sockets, ooh, there you go
And here comes the man, he bought a gift from Kazan
He can't leave it alone, oh, no, rhythm and soul

When you take a picture and it falls in the lot
Oh, no, no
Take another picture and you spring in the trap
Oh, no, no, you miss home

You [Incomprehensible], change of tide
And you're wise, you're wise, rhythm and

Tracked houses, square couches
Short legs and square shoulders
Pot holders, aching soldiers
Your tank rollers, your all overs

And you know, ooh, the rhythm and soul
Get your fingers moving their sockets, tune in Tokyo
You're just the man, the one I saw in Kazan
[Incomprehensible] throw, oh, no, the rhythm and
