Everything moves so fast
I should know who won't last
Take some stock, what you are
What you see, what you got

It tells me true, I want a connection to
Someone, something
Edge of a knife, been missing it all my life
Someone, something

Someone or something
Someone, something
Someone, something

They get you where you live
Don't go back, you can't go back again

Yes, it's true just a connection to
Someone, something
Been up all night, feel like sucking an ArmaLite
Someone, something

Everything moves so fast
I should know who won't last

I want a settled life, I want to be calm and polite
Someone, something
I'll get this right, oh, when I get there now
Someone, something

Someone, something
Someone or something
Someone, something
